CRITICISM OF THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Many of our citizens are not aware that we have in New York, at No. 163 East 70th st., a College of Music, the advantages of which will compare favorably with those of many foreign institutions of the kind. It is a chartered organization, under the supervision of a board of eight supervisors, comprising Messrs. Theodore Thomas, H. Kiddie, C. F. Treebar, E. II. Schermerhorn, G. F. Livingston, J. Hallgarten and other gentlemen well known in musical circles. Only professors of acknowledged ability are engaged, and these give lossons in vocatism and on every instrument after the most approved methods of the European conservatories. The director is Mr. Louis Alexander. A list of last year's pupils shows a patronsure that ombraces many of our neighboring cities. An institution of this character has long been a desideratum.
